

Jet Cleaning Trucks

www.enquires@veolia.com

Veolia has recently upgraded its fleet of jetting trucks with the new state of the art 'Predator MKIII' high velocity jetting trucks. These units feature the unique INTEL-JET control module, an intelligent self regulating unit offering the most technologically advanced system in today's market.

These state of the art jetting trucks are renowned for their increased water efficiency while delivering a staggering 30% increased cleaning efficiency. This is also coupled with the trucks reduced overall fuel consumption and decreased carbon footprint by reducing carbon emissions to the environment.

Veolia has 6 'Predator MKIII high velocity jetting trucks in our fleet.

Key Features:

- » Operator touch screen control
- » Automated water flow selection
- » New safety features for both operator/system
- » Environmentally friendly - conserving water & fuel
- » Self regulating water pressure
- » Choice of system control (pendant or remote)
- » Triplex positive displacement water pump
- » Water pump rated at 155 bar @ 269 l/min
- » Service warning indicators for truck & system

NETWORK SERVICES